THE KISSANE EXPOSE.

The San Francisco Police Trying to S. on the Bee.

Special to the APPEAL.]

SACRAMENTO April, 12.—The Bee today contains further revelations in the Kissane matter. It gives the history of his written confession in Sing Sing in 1885 and for which he obtained a pardon, on condition that he would testify. He ran away however. There is incontestable, documentary proof furnished of Reuben Lloyd's identity, as the brother of Bill Kissane. W. K. Rogers, six years ago defrauded a prominent Sacramento merchant of $25,000 threatening his life if certain stock in a valuable mine was not given to Rogers, and finally freezing him out by assessing his stock. It promises a full inside history of the horrible Martha Washington tragedy tomorrow. The Bee's presses are kept running all night to supply orders from the San Francisco news stands.

SACRAMENTO April, 13.—The Bee continues the Kissane revelations today, giving details of the Martha Washington disaster, in which the gang caused the death of sixteen people, so as to get the insurance on a worthless cargo. It tells how the gang hounded and killed all the principal witnesses against them. The records and witnesses have been adduced so as to contradict the statement of Rogers' lawyer about his past career.

The Bee's San Francisco agent has telegraphed that the police are endeavoring to prevent the newsboys from selling Bees on the streets. The Bee managers answer that they will protect the newsboys and prosecute the police at any cost. Over thirty thousand copies of the Bee have already been sold in San Francisco and Oakland, and extras have been increased to ten thousand copies daily for the Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, April, 14.—It is common street talk today that Kissane has fled to British Columbia, having first mortgaged his property for a large amount.

A Small Swindle.

The petty swindles perpetrated on the people of this city by the various traveling shows are becoming a most intolerable nuisance. The Carleton troupe promised the public new scenery, in consideration of which they raised the price of reserved seats to $1.50. The performance was strong in numbers and choruses, and (considering the absence of any capable soprano,) as well as anybody could expect. It was not as good as the Pyke Company, however, and the new scenery promised did not appear.

The advance agent called at the APPEAL office and stated that he had feared that the large scene in the 2nd act would not go on the Opera House stage, but that he had measured the stage and the scene would fit nicely. This announcement was made in good faith in the APPEAL.

Hereafter all theatrical agents who bring cock and bull stories to this office must accompany them by an affidavit.

Keep Good Bulls.

The value of good bulls in the herd is no better illustrated than by the following: A cattle raiser of central New Mexico shipped to the Kansas City market last fall a lot of native steers, animals in whose veins the scrubbiest of blood flowed and he received net for the lot $13 a head. There were on the market from the herd of McBroome, the same week, a lot of grade Hereford steers of the same age as the scrubs, which sold for $32 net a head. Still the scrub cattle raiser is running with his herd the bulls of Andulstia, and thinks it doesn't pay to get improved stock.—New Mexico Stock Grower.

Elocutionary Lessons.

Miss Rose Stannus of Tacoma, Washington Territory, is in this city and contemplates opening a class in elocution. She brings the highest of references from well-known people in Washington Territory and California, where she has taught with great success. She proposes giving a free reading in this city on Saturday night in order that people who contemplate sending scholars to her, may be enabled to judge of her capabilities in the elocutionary line.

J. B. MONACO, Artist.

—Wholesale business firms of San Francisco are sending to patrons in the State notices of advances in prices furnished recently. The following is a sample of such notices: "Owing to the enormous advance in freight on all goods which we handle, it becomes necessary for us to advance our prices and to withdraw any quotations which we have made you heretofore." This is one of the benefits which the people of Nevada derive from the action of the Inter-State Commerce law.

—Since it has been discovered that water can be obtained in plenty by sinking artesian wells in parts of New Mexico, that two years ago were considered useless for cattle raising, cattlemen have learned that that territory has excellent facilities for stock growing, and it is, in consequence, experiencing a boom in that direction.—Post.

The day will come when Nevada will experience an artesian well boom, but we must wait until the people of this State have broader ideas than now, on this subject.

Possible Presidents.

It begins to look very much as though John Sherman will, if he lives, be the Republican candidate for President next year with the approval of Blaine and his friends. If he should be the fight will be a tough one. Sherman is sound on everything that Republicans believe in except silver, and he is quite as sound on that question as his opponent, and the Eastern money manipulators would prefer him to almost any other man on the Republican side. Still, we sincerely hope he will not be the candidate. It is time for the West to have a President. Both Sherman and Cleveland are too much under the influence of New York City, which influence is dictated from Threadneedle Street, London. We need a President of the Lincoln stamp once more.—Salt Lake Tribune.

The APPEAL some time ago suggested Gov. Alger, of Michigan, as a possible Presidential candidate. He is a man that no one can place a mark on and he is solid on the silver and Chinese questions.

The Animus.

Some, still hungry opponents of Mr. Stewart are finding temporary comfort in attacking everybody who supported him, when there is a circumstance upon which a plausible complaint can be hung. The squeal over Mr. Drury and his State contract, is not made because he took a contract from a State office in which he was a deputy, but because he was a supporter of Mr. Stewart. It may have been wrong for the gentleman to do as he did do, but it is possible that he was ignorant of the law, and it is almost certain that now that he has learned that he was engaged in an illegal proceeding he will refund the money. Should he do this no Grand Jury can be found that will indict him and the enemies of Mr. Stewart will be obliged to search for another lamb of sacrifice.—Walker Lake Bulletin.

The APPEAL is informed that Mr. Drury will shortly refund the $360 to the State.

Arbor Day.

The celebration of Arbor Day on Wednesday was general throughout the State. In this city about 10,000 trees were planted. The trees furnished the school children will probably not all grow, as many of the children took the trees home with the roots exposed, instead of covering them or wrapping them up from the sun and air. Pines treated in this way almost invariably die. The children, however, will probably get the hang of the new game better next time and each year will give them more experience in the noble science of arboriculture.

A Female Bank Manager Ships with $50,000.

BOSTON, April 14.—The Herald states that Mrs. Sarah E. Howe of Woman's Bank fame, has absconded with $50,000 of the depositors' money. A lady from Augusta, Me., called at Mrs. Howe's house last evening for the purpose of collecting interest on a sum of money deposited with her. She was told by the man who came to the door that Mrs. Howe had skipped and taken $50,000 with her. A warrant has been issued for her arrest and the police are searching for her.

Beacroft vs. Dahl.

The case of Beacroft vs. Dahl, entered about two years ago in the U. S. Circuit Court, was decided yesterday for the plaintiff. Beacroft for some years acted as foreman of Dahl's ranch, Washoe county. He sued for wages, etc., asking for the sum of $5,800. The Court allowed him $80.

The Lucky Numbers.

NEW ORLEANS, April 13.—The following are the lucky numbers of the regular monthly drawing of the Louisiana Lottery: First prize No. 67,060; second, 23,890; third, 6,901; fourth, 23,735; fifth, 50,830; sixth, 6,346; seventh, 19,724; eighth, 11,581; ninth 91,840.

Go Lenon to Hang on June 10

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—Judge Murphy this morning denied the motion for a new trial in the case of Alexander Goldenson, convicted of the murder of the school girl, Mamie Kelly and sentenced Goldenson to be hanged June 10.
